message of Christ. Fr. Burns started rapping at the age of 17 and became involved with a non-denominational Christian youth group although he never left the Catholic Church. His group, the Agape Crew, grew very popular. It was then he felt the call to the priesthood. Fr. Burns remained a big fan of the musical genre through his call to the priesthood, seminary and ordination in 2002. Soon Fr. Burns began to perform and record Catholic hip-hop and emerged as a Catholic rapper, whose stage name is Fr. Pontifex. Why I Love Religion and Love Jesus was his YouTube video that within days tallied more than 16 million viewings. People of faith and of no faith responded—Muslim, Christian, atheist. And Catholic! His music is centered in truth and delivered in a poetic form not seen or heard elsewhere – and that's what sets his music apart. It's a holy message, distinct and profound.
